(a) That planning permission should be granted for what is alleged in the notice.					$\checkmark$
The facts are set out in
✓ see 'Appeal Document
(b) That the breach of control alleged in the enforcement notice has not occurred as a matter of fact. $\Box$
(c) That there has not been a breach of planning control (for example because permission has already been granted, or it is "permitted development").				Ø
The facts are set out in
☑ the box below
12. The Appellant will stand B on the plan that a	how that there has accompanied the E	in part) does not constitute a breach of been a track in place between, at the nforcement Notice for more than four y workshop and an existing balancing p	very lea ears. T	st, points A
13. The Appellant will contend also that the removal of trees as alleged does not constitute a breach of planning control.
(d) That, at the time the enforcement notice was issued, it was too late to take enforcement action against the matters stated in the notice.

(e) The notice was not properly served on everyone with an interest in the land.
(f) The steps required to comply with the requirements of the notice are excessive, and lesser steps would overcome the objections.
The facts are set out in
✓ the box below
Ground (f) – the steps required by the notice exceed what is necessary to remedy the breach of planning control
14. Further to point 12 above, the Appellant will contend that there is no planning requirement to replace any trees that the Council alleges have been removed between points A and D on the plan that accompanied the Enforcement Notice.
(g) The time given to comply with the notice is too short. Please state what you consider to be a reasonable compliance period, and why.
The facts are set out in
the box below
Ground (g) – the period specified in the notice falls short of what should reasonably be allowed.
15. In the event that the Enforcement Notice is upheld as drafted, 3-months is too short a time to replace any trees that the Council might identify as having been removed – the optimum time to plant new trees is in the Autumn. A period of 3-months is also too short a window in which to "take up the hard standing from the access track and remove it from the land."
